

Vailog completes new development in Rovigo (Italy)

44,000 m<sup>2</sup> leased to BSL

In November 2008, Vailog successfully handed-over a new warehouse in Rovigo (Italy).

The new warehouse is entirely leased to BSL S.p.A.

BSL is a leading Italian logistics provider with over 500,000 m<sup>2</sup> of distribution space under management. Its customers include companies such as Bosch, Prada, Reebok, Lindt, Ferrero, ...

The new warehouse is located in one of the most strategic locations for logistics in Eastern Italy, just 40km from Padua and Venice. It is part of a wider logistics park, where Vailog will develop another 3 warehouses of approx. 70,000 m<sup>2</sup>, and where Ikea is developing a new facility of 150,000 m<sup>2</sup>.

December 2, 2008