

Vailog Starts New Construction of 122,000 m<sup>2</sup> in Shanghai

Shanghai, November 26, 2010 — Vailog just started the construction of 122,000 sqm of distribution space in Shanghai, respectively in Songjiang DC3, Shih udang Logistics Park, Kunshan Logistics Park and Malu Logistics Centre.

All four projects are strategically located in the West of Shanghai and provides good immediate access to the city's major motorways (including S5, G15, G60, G1501 and S15 Expressway).

According to its plans, Vailog will complete over 200,000 sqm of distribution space in Shanghai in 2011 and a strong pipeline of projects for over 330,000 sqm will be launched during the same period.

Vailog has already built 160,000 sqm over the past 2 years in Shanghai; existing customers in Shanghai include Schenker, Toll Asia, ABB, China Aviation Logistics Group, Li-Ning...
