

Long-term lease

GRANDI SALUMIFICI ITALIANI S.p.A.

30,000 m<sup>2</sup> in BOLOGNA (Italy)

On November 8 2011, VAILOG signed a 30,000 sqm long-term lease agreement with Grandi Salumifici Italiani («GSI») at Interporto di Bologna.

This new build-to-suit distribution center will be Vailog's 4th project at Interporto; in total, Vailog will have developed over 110,000 sqm of built-to-suit projects for customers including Indesit, DHL and Geodis / Yoox.

The building is temperature-controlled and will benefit from the highest environmental features, including roof-top photovoltaic electricity production.

GSI is Italy's largest food company specialized in cold cuts and one of Europe's leading producers, with over 110,000 tons of production annually. It generates an annual turnover exceeding Eur 600 mln, strongly growing and highly profitable.

Interporto di Bologna is one Italy's largest logistics parks, with over 2 million sqm of distribution space. Ideally located North of Bologna, with direct access to the motorway, it operates the country's largest inland container terminal and offers a wide range of services (customs, fuel station, 24/7 security, etc.)
